Balzer, Held as Wife-Beater, Leaped from High Gallery to Paved Court-Will Recover.

Awaiting examination in the Raymond treet Jail on a charge of wife-beatorge Balzer, fifty-six years old ing, George Balzer, nity-six years out, of Ne. 19 Melrose atreet, Brocklyn, attempted to commit suicide to-day by jumping from the third gallery to the stone pavement below. He had made preparation for the act by writing a directing that his effects, conin the Machinists' Union, be given his wife and his best friend, Herin Fisher, of No. 571 First avenue

He left another note open in his cell. It read: "I will let everybody know that it was not my fault that I leave

When the man was picked up after his leap it was found that he had suffered some contusions, but the ambu-lance surgeon said his injuries are not serious. He was taken to the Brook-ivn Hospital, where he is under ob-servation as to his sanity.

HURT AT PENN. TUNNEL

motive Jumps Track and Fire man McGee Has Knee Broken.

Patrick McGee, of No. 145 Perry street, fireman on a Pennsylvania locomotive employed in moving dirt at the entrance of the tunnel under North River, was hurled from the engine to-day sustain-ing a broken knee and injuries of the body.

The engine was moving along at lively clip when it struck a switch which was open and left the track. Engineer and fireman both jumped, but McGee fell on a pile of stones and was hurt. He was taken to Roosevelt Hospital.
